Extracts. The whole number of Prough abroad is stated Houses. Lands, Tenements, &c. 575,000 English and Scatchmen have smigrated. and 736,000 frighmen. The internal movement is equally small. More than 33,500,000, or 88 ner cent; of all the inhabitants, live id the place where they were horn. And this is a natura consequence of the agricultural character of the population. No human being is so immorable as may in some respects deserve the effection with which they are regarded by a certain class of political economists, but they are the nearout approach to the condition suggested by the vivid asked to dance, and consented on the ground that she had sat and sat and sat till she had "night took root." A very large part of the French people seem to be so far approximating to the of the whole population or pearly 20,000,000 men and women, are dependent upon agriculture That is, nearly as many as the whole nonulation of England and Wales. More than half of the ugricultural population, egnin consists of people intivating their own entities. There are over WITH immediate possession BELMONT, in 0.000,000 versons thus employed, of whom shout | Detrohed residence with with andiscent England and Wales, is only just over 2,000,000, out of a total population of 20,000,000, While the occumations classed as "industrial" occupy in England twice as many men as agricultural in France they do not occupy much more than half as many, In fact, Prance is one of the most agricultural countries in Enrope ... The oroverbial immobility of the agricultural amind je at mere intensified where every man her land his own, and where his affection for his Jand the strongest passion of which, har is connable Politically, this forcibly illustrates the hold which n certain kind of conservatism must have upon the country. The predominant element of the population is that which in all doubtries oberlahes a hatred for change as change, and only requires to be allowed. like Candide, to cultivate its oabthe country districts apparently perceit ted Paris to indalge in barriondes and fevalutions. simply because they did not kniw, and could not i bring to bear upon one point, their own mowielde strength. The Empire involved in revelation and a practical application of his truth it implies the subordination of the revolutionary energy of the towns to the dorged determination of the country to he miet shirt many as his It is the more curious to see that, at the same time, the sowns are rapidly growing at the exnente of the foral population. The town poonlation has in fact, increased at a rute equal t the average English rete of increase whilst the rural populations actually diminished from 1848 to 1856; and although it has lately again in cronand, has not yet recovered the level renched in 1846. . Legal Education. The Telegraph laments that the har, especially the common law bar, is now so overcrowded. I is common to speak with ridicule of the briefless harrister: but if the private life of some of those men were revealed, it would present a shocking history of fruitless struggle against disappointment and abject poverty .. Pride and self rearest generally prevent the sufferings of the place from being generally known; but occasionally the weil Coolies Rooms, etc., also Stabling and Charles in Unrhour, or their Cargoes is lifted. Some of these unfortunate gentlemen grounds situated hext the residence of Captain are in a state but dittle removed from actual Thomsett, West Point, between Bonham and star votion, and would, be comparatively rich if Ponkfdolam Boads on Inland Lat No. 757; For they could corn journeymen's wages. Now it is terms apply to Mr. Titos, M. BARRINGTON, at Mr. immediately obvious that the enforced idleness, Bangxa. Austianeers, Wyndham Street, of so many barristers is not only productive of private misery, but is also injurious to the community. It is a waste of so much intellect and energy, which ought if nossible to be devoted to some pacful purpose. The men who consume, their lives in miserable mactivity at Westminster Hall, or the dreariest chambers of the Tomple those which clients never visit ore certainly above th average in their intellectual attainments, and they were get to some profitable work they could perform a large share in the world's business. There can he no doubt that the number of students called to the har with the intention of practising is for larger than the actual requirement; and the excess of supply over demand is due to many causes. Theirises partly from overweening ambition, partly from fact that the profession is a latterv, in which the prizes are aplending and th number of blanks is inndequately known. Another great source of the evil is the system of pro- THAT Lorge Isolated Dwelling house known as miscuous admission adopted by the Ince of Court. These bodies have the power of reducing the num- | Rooms, Water laid on to the Bath Booms, Kitcher her of barriaters within reasonable limits, but they | Pantry, and large Stables dotatohed ; at proson will not exercise that power, because the immen peoppled by fol, Jonner; Possession can be had diate effect would be at diminutive of their own, on the let February ... revenues, of which a large part arises from the foca of students and barristers. No sound rasson can be adduced why the examination of oundidates for admission to the har should not be compoledry. The Universities confer degrees on these nime who have successfully passed such an ordeal, and why should not the Inne about 25000 Picula holding capacity for one or of Court adopt a similar practice P. Paring Control of the DROFESSOR WHEELER would respectfully attract the Attention of the Hongkong Public to the importance of braving the Hair Out. and Dressed in an Artistic manner and style. Appropriate to the Individual is the cut of the Hair : there can be no fixed or prevailing fashion without destroying almost universally the harmeny of the fout ensemble, Indeed as diverse at is the confour of the buttan head and facial outlips, just sopeouliar should be the trim and arranges ment of the Hair. This fact is acted upon by only those Hair-Cutters who possess an inherent Judgment in marters of thete, cultivated and in Gentlemen's and Ladies Eaddles, with oppurton proved by incessant study and application.
